

I urge you to ensure the Local Number Portability (LNP) provision of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 is implemented in November 2003. I strongly believe that this consumer protection regulation will promote increased competition among wireless telecommunication providers, resulting in much-needed improvements in customer service and pricing.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.